Gentlemen - I was thrilled to read the article about the process for a new police chief in the Inlet Outlet today. Because I was squeezed out of hearing range in the standing room only crowd at Town Hall, I never heard Dick Busto's thank you remarks to Chief Pruitt. I am so pleased to read his quote in which he echoes my previously expressed sentiments about JIC's need for both leadership AND friendship.

I was also pleased to read that the selection committee will meet in the Tequesta offices where there is better technology and where you can accommodate attendance by more residents. Sadly many of us snowbirds will not be in residence, but I presume, with better technology, we will be invited to participate by zoom. Is that true? Will you please provide a date and time for the first meeting and any thereafter that are scheduled?

Thanks very much.
