

Coastal Access Guide

The Florida Department of Environmental Protection has launched a new "Coastal Access Guide." The website features comprehensive data on public coastal access points along the coast (primarily sandy beaches) around the entire state of Florida. The interactive map allows users to zoom into each point to see an aerial image. Visit the new Coast Access Guide by clicking the link below.

Coastal Access Guide